

Remote Sensing Technician

Home Base: Bossier City, LA / Ruston, LA

Job Title: Remote Sensing Technician

Status: Contract Terms Negotiable (6 to 12 months preferred)

Job Description/Duties:

- Safely operate company equipment to acquire airborne data.
- Set up GPS base stations and operate survey equipment in project areas.
- Troubleshoot instrumentation/equipment abnormalities.
- Complete necessary field logs and data transfer after completing missions.
- Work closely with pilots while flying and monitoring equipment which requires extensive sitting and enduring various flight conditions.
- Willingness to travel for extended periods of time, working early mornings and/ or late evenings.
- Must be available to work on an on-call basis.
- Geospatial data processing and map production

Required Skills and Experience:

- Experience with ArcGIS, CAD based Software, map production, GPS processing, Data Analysis, and Technical Writing.
- Ability to work well within a team
- Ability to communicate in detail of technical instrumentation failures.

Preferred Skills and Experience:

- GIS or related degree
- Ability to rapidly learn new computer software packages

Email Resumes to resume@precisionaerialrecon.com

It is our policy to provide equal opportunity for all qualified persons and not to discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, sexual orientation, veteran status, disability, or any other protected status. Resumes will be accepted until all positions are filled. Immediate submissions are welcome and will be reviewed promptly. All job offers are contingent upon passing a background check and drug screening.